

- (a) fossil sites, natural sites or sites that have an anthropological or heritage value,
- (b) an endangered, threatened or vulnerable species, subspecies or race of plants, vertebrates or invertebrates, or
- (c) any other rare or endangered living resources.

Disclosure harmful to individual or public safety

19 (1) The head of a public body may refuse to disclose to an applicant information, including personal information about the applicant, if the disclosure could reasonably be expected to

- (a) threaten anyone else's safety or mental or physical health, or
- (b) interfere with public safety.

(2) The head of a public body may refuse to disclose to an applicant personal information about the applicant if the disclosure could reasonably be expected to result in immediate and grave harm to the applicant's safety or mental or physical health.

Information that will be published or released within 60 days

20 (1) The head of a public body may refuse to disclose to an applicant information

- (a) that is available for purchase by the public, or
- (b) that, within 60 days after the applicant's request is received, is to be published or released to the public.

(2) The head of a public body must notify an applicant of the publication or release of information that the head has refused to disclose under subsection (1) (b).

(3) If the information is not published or released within 60 days after the applicant's request is received, the head of the public body must reconsider the request as if it were a new request received on the last day of that period, but the information must not be refused under subsection (1) (b).

Disclosure harmful to business interests of a third party

21 (1) The head of a public body must refuse to disclose to an applicant information
